This event is designed to provide Guild members' with an opportunity to sell Goods without commission – it is a 'not for profit' service for members. This is a sympathetic market with large crowds attracted.

Want a sociable day in the hall? – come as a group, or join the group –register names on the sellers / demonstrators lists. 10 people each day creates a friendly, welcoming atmosphere. Parking at the Hall. Lunch/morning tea/afternoon tea provided.

Want to sell some of your stash?

- Pay 50c per item priced $10 or under or $2.50 per item priced over $10 - and send in up to 40 small or 20 large items for sale.
- Fill out the Entry Form and tag your goods with matching numbers to the Entry Form information.

Send tagged goods, money and entry form in a secure closable bag with your name and membership number clearly labelled on it to Allison Smith in Deloraine (alsmitcran@gmail.com 0405494427) by 14th October....OR to the Tamar Group's Open Day around the same time.

Where do you get forms and tags?

- Entry Forms and Entry Rules and Guild Tags are emailed to all group leaders, posted on the Guild Web Site and printed in Island Yarns. You can print these to be photocopied.
- A paper copy of Guild Tags, Entry Form and the Entry Rules can be posted out to group leaders on request. You can make multiple photocopies to supply your group's members. Please send a request from your group with a postal address to Allison Smith.
- Spares are available through email on request from -
